

65.162 Special districts may be expanded to include additional counties.

- (1) Any special district may be expanded to include additional counties within its jurisdiction for performing the function for which it was organized.
- (2) Before a county may participate in a multi-county special district, the fiscal court shall determine that participation is feasible and necessary. The determination shall be made only after a duly advertised public hearing has been held by the fiscal court.
- (3) When a county is added to a multi-county special district, it shall be given representation on the governing body of the district in the same manner as the other counties within the district.
- (4) Members of the governing body of multi-county special districts may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

Effective: July 15, 1980
