

21A.110 Retired justice or judge serving as special judge -- Compensation -- Expenses.

Any retired justice or judge assigned to active judicial service pursuant to Section 110(5)(b) of the Constitution shall be compensated for his service as follows:

- (1) The salary for each day which the justice or judge serves shall be the difference, if any, between $1/250$ of annual retirement benefits and $1/250$ of the annual salary for the judicial office in which he performs the judicial duties. However, no special judge shall receive compensation that is less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per day. This section shall not be construed to require a reduction in retirement benefits if the applicable salary would be less than the retirement benefits.
- (2) Necessary expenses incidental to the performance of the duties of such assignment shall be paid out of the State Treasury upon approval by the Chief Justice or his designee.
