

61.150 Member of General Assembly -- How salary deducted.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate shall direct the clerk of the House or Senate, as the case may be, to certify to the Finance and Administration Cabinet the number of days each member of the branch of the General Assembly over which he presides failed to be present without good excuse, and the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall, upon the receipt of such certificate, deduct the per diem for the number of days the member was absent without good excuse from the salary thereafter due the member for services during that session of the General Assembly.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 3765.