

65.027 Reciprocal preference to be given to resident bidders by local governments.

- (1) As used in this section, "local government" means city, county, urban-county, consolidated local government, charter county, unified local government, or special district.
- (2) For all contracts awarded by a local government, the local government shall apply the reciprocal preference for resident bidders described in KRS 45A.494.

Effective: July 15, 2010

History: Created 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 162, sec. 4, effective July 15, 2010.

Legislative Research Commission Note (7/15/2010). The term "unified county" in subsection (1) of this section has been changed in codification to "unified local government" in order to use the correct, statutory term for a united city-county government and maintain consistency with the current text of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. This change was made by the Reviser of Statutes under the authority of KRS 7.136(1).
