

70.380 Staying or delay of process -- When constable excused by.

It shall be no defense to any action or motion against a constable or his sureties that the process or other authority under which he acted, or it was his duty to act, was stayed or in any manner delayed, unless it was done in writing signed by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 445.