

74.405 Gas distribution system to be administered by water commissioners.

If the water district is authorized to establish the gas distribution system, such system shall be established, maintained, and operated by the water commissioners of the district authorized to establish said system and said commissioners shall have all of the powers and authority, as regards the gas distributing system, that are conferred upon them for the purpose of furnishing a water supply under KRS 74.010 to 74.390.

Effective: June 19, 1952

History: Created 1952 Ky. Acts ch. 133, sec. 4, effective June 19, 1952.