

81.025 Laws applicable to city established by order applicable until reassignment by General Assembly.

After an order establishing a city has been entered, the general laws relating to cities of the class which includes the population of the newly incorporated city shall apply to the city until the city is assigned to another class by the General Assembly.

Effective: July 15, 1980

History: Created 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 115, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1980.