

100.267 Restraint of construction without permit.

If no building permit has been issued and a builder begins or continues to build, a restraining order may be obtained upon application to the proper court of record and evidence of the lack of a building permit shall establish a prima facie case for the issuance of the restraining order.

History: Created 1966 Ky. Acts ch. 172, sec. 60.