

148.760 Procedure for relocation.

Segments of the state trails may be relocated when such relocation is deemed necessary to preserve or enhance the values for which the trails were established. Relocation may be accomplished by the department after consultation with other governmental agencies involved and following publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation, together with maps and descriptions. In establishing the new location and right-of-way the procedures set forth in KRS 148.670 through 148.710, inclusive, shall be followed.
