

158.220 Time allowed for moral instruction in suitable place.

The boards of education shall allow pupils who have expressed a desire for moral instruction to be excused for at least one (1) hour, one (1) day each week to attend their respective places of worship or some other suitable place to receive moral instruction in accordance with the religious faith or preference of the pupils.

Effective: July 13, 1990

History: Amended 1990 Ky. Acts ch. 476, Pt. IV, sec. 208, effective July 13, 1990. -- Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat.
sec. 4363-7c.