

198B.664 Renewal and restoration of license -- Inactive status -- Reactivation.

- (1) Every master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor's license and journeyman heating, ventilation, and air conditioning mechanic's license issued by the board may be renewed annually, upon payment of a renewal fee. Failure to renew shall cause the license to expire.
- (2) Applications for restoration may be made within ninety (90) days of expiration of a license upon payment of the renewal fee, payment of a restoration fee, and if applicable proof of insurance as required by KRS 198B.668.
- (3) Those persons previously licensed by the board as a master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor and not engaged in the practice of heating, ventilating, and air conditioning contracting in the Commonwealth may apply and be granted inactive status by the board in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the board. Licensees granted inactive status shall not retain the right to statewide practice of heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contracting. An inactive license shall not be a valid license. A licensee on inactive status may petition the board for restoration of a license to practice actively. The petitioner shall pay a reactivation fee, provide proof of the satisfaction of all other requirements as determined by the board, and obtain the insurance as required by KRS 198B.668.
