

198B.726 Licensure or registration of home inspectors by agencies or political subdivisions prohibited.

- (1) As used in this section, "political subdivision" means any city, county, or consolidated local government.
- (2) No agency or political subdivision of the state, other than the board, shall impose the following on individuals licensed under KRS 198B.700 to 198B.738:
 - (a) A registration or licensing requirement; or
 - (b) A license fee to obtain any local license, except that this prohibition shall not prevent any local government from imposing an occupational license tax on any person operating as a home inspector within the jurisdiction of the local government.
