

205.597 Health coverage through insurer of noncustodial parent of child under medical child support order.

If a child has health coverage through the insurer of a noncustodial parent, the insurer is required:

- (1) To provide information to the custodial parent as necessary for the child to obtain benefits for the coverage;
- (2) To permit the custodial parent or provider, with the custodial parent's approval, to submit claims for covered services without the approval of the noncustodial parent; and
- (3) To make payment on claims submitted in accordance with subsection (2) of this section directly to the custodial parent, the provider, or the Medical Assistance Program.
