

206.130 Cabinet may make investigation.

When in the opinion of the cabinet any pension that has been granted, or any claim for pension, should be specially investigated, the cabinet shall make such investigation as it deems necessary, and file a written report of the result thereof with the application. The cabinet may summon and swear witnesses to appear before it and give testimony in the county where the applicant or pensioner lives.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 415b-19.