

262.130 Commission to pay for and supervise conduct of referendum -- Equal representation of opposing sides.

- (1) The commission shall pay all expenses for the issuance of notices and the conduct of the hearings and referendum provided for in KRS 262.110 and 262.120, and shall supervise the conduct of the hearings and referendum. It shall issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct of the hearings and referendum and providing for the registration prior to the date of the referendum of all eligible voters, or prescribing some other appropriate procedure for the determination of the eligibility of voters in the referendum.
- (2) In all referendums under this chapter, provision shall be made for those opposing the establishment of a district or the adoption of any regulation to have equal representation with the proponents of the measure in the registration and determination of eligibility of voters, in the election officers, in the holding of the referendum, in the custody of the votes cast and in the canvassing and certifying of the returns.
