

275.440 Grounds for revocation of certificate of authority of foreign limited liability company. (Repealed, effective January 1, 2011)

The Secretary of State may commence a proceeding under KRS 275.445 to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this Commonwealth if:

- (1) The foreign limited liability company does not deliver its annual report to the Secretary of State on or before the due date;
- (2) The foreign limited liability company is without a registered agent or registered office in this Commonwealth for sixty (60) days or more;
- (3) The foreign limited liability company does not inform the Secretary of State under KRS 275.420 and 275.425 that its registered agent or registered office has changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued within sixty (60) days of the change, resignation, or discontinuance;
- (4) A member or manager of the limited liability company or person organizing the foreign limited liability company signed a document the member, manager, or person knew was false in any material respect with intent that the document be delivered to the Secretary of State for filing; or
- (5) The Secretary of State receives a duly-authenticated certificate from the Secretary of State or other official having custody of limited liability company records in the state or country under whose law the foreign limited liability company is organized stating that it has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger or other event.
