

286.8-080 Factors for use by commissioner in determining approval or disapproval of application.

Upon receipt of the application the commissioner shall first determine whether or not it complies with the provisions of this subtitle and, if the commissioner so finds, he or she shall then inquire into the advisability of approving the application by determining whether the applicant demonstrates such financial responsibility, financial condition, and business expertise, character and general fitness to reasonably warrant the belief that the applicant's business will be conducted honestly, fairly and efficiently and in such a way as to justify public confidence. The commissioner may investigate and consider the qualifications of officers and directors or principals of an applicant in determining whether this qualification has been met. If the commissioner finds that the applicant meets all the above requirements, he shall approve the application.
