

304.9-190 Conduct of examinations.

- (1) The commissioner shall provide a reasonable opportunity to all applicants to take the examinations required by this subtitle. Examinations shall be held at least monthly at places in this state designated by the commissioner reasonably accessible to applicants, and at least weekly at Frankfort.
- (2) The commissioner shall give, conduct, and grade all examinations in a fair and impartial manner and without unfair discrimination as between individuals examined.
- (3) The commissioner may require a reasonable waiting period before reexamination of an applicant who has failed to pass a previous examination covering the same line of authority.

Effective: July 15, 2010

History: Amended 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 24, sec. 1058, effective July 15, 2010. -- Amended 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 393, sec. 16, effective July 14, 2000. -- Created 1970 Ky. Acts ch. 301, subtit. 9, sec. 19, effective June 18, 1970.