

351.192 Qualified or operator-designated person performing mine rescue acts not liable for damages for such acts.

Any person who is qualified by a federal or state agency to perform mine rescue planning and recovery operations, including mine rescue instructors and mine rescue team members, and any person designated by an operator furnishing a mine rescue team to supervise, assist in planning, or provide service thereto, who in good faith performs, or fails to perform, any act or service in connection with such mine rescue planning and recovery operations shall not be liable for any civil damages as a result of any such acts or omissions.

Effective: July 14, 2000

History: Amended 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 104, sec. 15, effective July 14, 2000. -- Created 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 194, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1980.