

67A.023 Redistricting of urban-county legislative districts.

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the comprehensive plan of an urban-county government, the legislative body of an urban-county government may defer redistricting of the legislative districts of such body subsequent to each decennial census by the United States Bureau of Census until after completion of the redistricting of General Assembly seats within the urban-county subsequent to such census. The redistricting of urban-county government legislative districts hereunder shall be effective for the first regular urban-county government primary election scheduled more than one hundred eighty (180) days after completion of such redistricting; provided that in no event will the redistricting become effective later than two (2) years after release of the census data upon which the redistricting is based.

Effective: July 15, 1980

History: Created 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 203, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1980.
