

217.208 Forgery of a prescription.

- (1) A person is guilty of forgery of a prescription when, with intent to defraud, deceive, or injure another, he falsely makes, completes, or alters a written instrument which is or purports to be or which is calculated to become or to represent a prescription for a legend drug when completed.
- (2) Forgery of a prescription is:
 - (a) For a first offense, a Class D felony.
 - (b) For a second or subsequent offense, a Class C felony.

Effective: July 15, 1998

History: Created 1998 Ky. Acts ch. 301, sec. 4, effective July 15, 1998.