

275.175 Number of votes required to do business -- No right of dissent.

- (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, a written operating agreement, or this chapter, the affirmative vote, approval, or consent of a majority-in-interest of the members, if management of the limited liability company is vested in the members, or a simple majority of the managers, each having a single vote, if the management of the limited liability company is vested in managers, shall be required to decide any matter connected with the business affairs of the limited liability company.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, the affirmative vote, approval, or consent of the majority-in-interest of the members shall be required to:
  - (a) Amend a written operating agreement;
  - (b) Authorize a manager or member to do any act on behalf of the limited liability company that contravenes a written operating agreement, including any written provision thereof which expressly limits the purpose, business, or affairs of the limited liability company or the conduct thereof; or
  - (c) Amend the articles of organization to change the management of the limited liability company from members to managers or from managers to members.
- (3) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, a written operating agreement, or this chapter, for all purposes of this chapter, the members of a limited liability company shall vote, approve, or consent in proportion to their contributions, based upon the agreed value as stated in the records of the limited liability company as required by KRS 275.185, made by each member to the extent they have been received by the limited liability company and have not been returned.
- (4) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or the written operating agreement, no member of a limited liability company shall have the right to dissent from an amendment to the operating agreement.
