

343.070 Settlements of controversies or complaints.

- (1) Upon the complaint of either party to the agreement, or upon his or her own initiative, the supervisor may investigate or determine if there has been a violation of the terms of the apprenticeship or on-the-job training agreement approved under this chapter. He may conduct inquiries and other proceedings necessary to any investigation and determination. The parties to the agreement shall, after reasonable notice, be given an informal hearing. All informal hearings, investigations, and determinations shall be made under authority of reasonable administrative regulations promulgated by the council subject to the approval of the commissioner.
- (2) The determination of the supervisor shall be filed with the commissioner. If no appeal therefrom is filed with the commissioner within fifteen (15) days, the determination shall become final. Any party aggrieved by any determination or action of the supervisor may appeal to the commissioner, who shall hold an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.
- (3) Any party to an apprenticeship or on-the-job training agreement aggrieved by a final order of the commissioner may appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court.
