

364.120 Branding of timber, effect as to third persons.

- (1) When a valid sale of standing timber has been made as provided in KRS 371.100 and the timber has been branded by the seller, or by another with his consent, with the brand of the purchaser, the sale shall have the same effect as to creditors and innocent purchasers as a recorded sale of land.
- (2) When a valid sale of timber other than standing timber has been made and the timber has been branded by the seller, or by another with his consent, with the brand of the purchaser, the sale shall have the same effect as a lodging for record of a conveyance of or charge upon personal property.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 1409-14.