

411.155 Liability for damages resulting from criminal use of a firearm by another person.

- (1) A person or entity shall not be held liable for damages of any kind resulting from injuries to another person sustained as a result of the criminal use of any firearm by a third person, unless the person or entity conspired with the third person to commit, or willfully aided, abetted, or caused the commission of, the criminal act in which the firearm was used.
- (2) This section shall not be construed to negate, limit, or modify the doctrine of negligence or strict liability relating to abnormally dangerous products or activities and defective products.

Effective: July 15, 1988

History: Created 1988 Ky. Acts ch. 223, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1988.