

431.063 Human trafficking victim not to be incarcerated pending trial -- Exceptions.

A victim of human trafficking shall not be held in a detention center, jail, or other secure facility pending trial for an offense arising from the human trafficking situation, except where the incarceration is found to be the least restrictive alternative to securing the appearance of that person before the court or the release of the person under any other reasonable condition would be a clear threat to public safety.

Effective: June 26, 2007

History: Created 2007 Ky. Acts ch. 19, sec. 2, effective June 26, 2007.