

453.210 Insolvent estates, claims against.

If, in the settlement of insolvent estates, a party presents a claim against the estate and it is not allowed, he shall pay the cost occasioned thereby, except the attorney's fee. No attorney's fee shall be allowed any claimant in any case against an insolvent estate.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 903.