

511.080 Criminal trespass in the third degree.

- (1) A person is guilty of criminal trespass in the third degree when he knowingly enters or remains unlawfully in or upon premises.
- (2) Criminal trespass in the third degree is a violation.

Effective: January 1, 1975

History: Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 406, sec. 103, effective January 1, 1975.